Religious Education and Faith Formation

Palm Sunday (Sixth Sunday of Lent)

This day could be thought of as a day of contradiction. The Mass begins with the reading of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem and His joyous reception by the crowds who strewed palm branches before Him, crying out, "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest." Today, this inspiring scene is commemorated by processions of the faithful carrying palm branches into their churches. The contradiction, however, is experienced as the full narrative of the Passion of Christ is read, culminating with Jesus' death on the Cross. But is it a contradiction? Is His glorious entrance into Jerusalem at the beginning of the week in any way opposed to His crucifixion? Certainly not. From a worldly perspective, for someone who lacks the ability to penetrate this mystery with the eyes of faith, the week ends in tragedy. But from the perspective of the Eternal Father, the welcome Jesus receives as He enters Jerusalem is the welcome given to the Savior of the World. His Cross would become the culmination of that act of salvation. For that reason, His entrance into that holy city was rightly celebrated with great joy, even though the people did not yet understand that the throne their new King would mount was the Cross.

How to Live Real Masculinity Chris Stefanick Show

Masculinity is under attack right now. Organizations are trying to break down the family, men are told that their nature is "toxic," and marriage is collapsing at the feet of broken husbands. We can't afford to keep suffering from mediocre men. Fortunately, that doesn't have to be the end of the story. Check out my video to see why the world needs good men more than ever. The Church needs us to step up, to take our part in the battle and fight for our children and for our families. That's why I'm talking today about how to live as a man for Christ. With God's grace, we can restore masculinity to society and lead it towards God, but we must have courage and the will to fight. Let's step into the breach and be the men God is calling us to be!

The Elements of the Catholic Mass

Elements of the Catholic Mass is designed to help the faithful better appreciate the beauty of the Mass. Featuring Fr. Douglas Martis, former director of the Liturgical Institute, the program consists of thirty-one beautifully produced short videos.

The Liturgical Movement

In essence, the liturgical movement is the effort on the part of the Church to help the faithful participate better at Mass. This meant, initially, that the people would participate in the singing and in giving the responses. Over the course of time, the Church realized that it is important that the people be able to enter deeply into the mystery by understanding what's going on during Mass.
